

Mergers & Acquisitions

Tonkon Torp has the bench strength, experience, and expertise to efficiently and effectively handle the full range of purchase and sale transactions.

No matter if you are buying or selling, M&A transactions involve a complex map of countless details and decision points. To ensure that a deal is structured and concluded on your terms, your business will benefit from working with a partner who is just as invested in the outcome as you are.

Whether your deal is valued at $1 million or $1 billion, our experienced attorneys are in it with you. Whether you are a first-generation family held business, or an international stakeholder, we build uncommonly close relationships and are committed to the vision and future trajectory of your company. During every stage of an M&A transaction, we provide high-touch support and expertise to help you navigate choices and to identify and manage risk.

Our M&A lawyers are efficient, solution-oriented, and cost-effective. We give well-informed, practical advice, to help you complete your significant transactions with confidence and peace of mind. We think like a business first and bring the right people, right questions, and right approach to every transaction.
